BUCKEYE NEWS.

New and Interesting Happenings Within Our Borders.

HORRIBLE.

A Girl Sets Her Clothes on Fire With Suicidal Intent.

MIDDLETOWN, O., Dec. 1.—Monday night the fire department was called out to extinguish a fire at Blanche Grey's resort, on North Broad. An inmate of the place, known as Goldie Stone, but whose real name is Retta Stern, was the victim. The girl was standing in front of an open grate in a front room of the Grey mansion, when she suddenly announced to those around her that she was going to kill herself, and that she hoped she would die quickly. She then deliberately stuck her dress, a thin black gauze affair, into the flames. In an instant the fire enveloped her. The other inmates of the place were horror-stricken, and made no effort to aid her until Samuel Hinkle, who was near by, rushed in and tried to stop the flames with a blanket. He succeeded finally in doing it, but his left hand was terribly burned in the effort. The girl was carried to a bed and Drs. Murray and Bundy summoned.

An examination revealed the fact that she was injured beyond any possible hope of recovery, and her death will probably occur before morning. Her arms and breast were burned until the flesh dropped off in pieces when she was moved. Almost every portion of her body was touched by the flames. When the girl realized that she must die the scene was a heartrending one. She called all those present to her bedside, gave her few earthly belongings to them, and then bade them all good-bye. The girl is a daughter of David Stern, a laborer, who resides in this city. She is a particularly fine looking girl, aged about 24, and has been here for two years.

A LUNATIC.

Who Wandered About the Country, Nearly Dead From Exposure.

DELAWARE, O., Dec. 1.—George Heffner was adjudged insane Monday morning by Probate Judge Freshwater, and committed to the Columbus asylum. Heffner disappeared from his home last Wednesday, and returned after wandering about the country. Saturday evening he again left, clad only in an undershirt and trousers, and was found Monday by the sheriff and a brother seven miles south of town in a pitiable condition from exposure. He is a well to do bachelor and a member of one of the oldest families in Delaware.

Killed at the Crossing.

LIMA, O., Dec. 1.—Tuesday morning a few minutes after 7 o'clock, as Chas. Ashton, driver of a wagon for the Solar refinery, was leaving the refinery to come to the city for the office employees, he was struck by westbound freight train No. 90 on the Chicago & Erie road. The pilot struck the vehicle in the middle and smashed it into fragments, hurling Ashton about one hundred feet, killing him instantly. The harness was stripped from the horses but they were not injured. Ashton saw the train but attempted to drive across ahead of it.

Abominable Ventilation.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 1.—Secretary Probst, of the state board of health, returned from Findlay Monday morning, where he had been to investigate an outbreak of diphtheria in a children's home at that place. There were 22 children in the home. The building was intended for a sanitarium, and Dr. Probst says in all his experience he never saw such abominable ventilation, which has caused the building to propagate disease.

Killed by a Train.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 1.—Christian Myers, one of the best known citizens about Blue Ash, O., and proprietor of Myers' grove, the summer resort, was run down and killed Tuesday morning by a northbound C. & M. train. He was on his way to Reading, and was driving a spirited horse. The horse was not even scratched, but the buggy was smashed to splinters. Myers was killed almost instantly.

For Killing a Baby.

LIMA, O., Dec. 1.—Several days ago Coroner Staebler received information of the killing of an infant, and secured Detective Blaise to investigate the crime, which resulted Monday evening in the arrest of Miss Laura Olinger and John Dolan, a fireman on the Lake Erie and Western railroad, upon the charge. The baby, a male, was found by Detective Blaise secreted beneath a log pen.

Charged With Making Bait Nicks.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 1.—Robert Lewis, of Dayton, O., who was arrested in that city on a charge of counterfeiting, was given a partial hearing before Commissioner Matthews Tuesday morning. His case will be concluded Friday. He was sent to jail in default of bail. Attorney Bruce was in Dayton to try the case.

Fire in a Mine Shaft.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 1.—A fire engine was sent by special train from this city Tuesday to Gloucester, O., where a mine shaft is on fire and the lives of several miners who are in the shaft are in danger. The mine belongs to the Sunday Creek Mine Co.

Diphtheria in Butler.

BUTLER, O., Dec. 1.—Dr. M. W. Cochran, aged 33, married, died Monday of diphtheria. There have been no schools, church or Sunday school services held for a month on account of the disease.

Will Start at Once.

WARREN, O., Dec. 1.—Orders since the election have caused the Day-Ward Manufacturing Co. to decide upon a large addition to its establishment here, and work on it will be started at once.

Fatally Beat the Teacher.

LOGAN, O., Dec. 1.—Emmitt Keyder, superintendent of the Haydensville public school, punished John Bolling's child. Bolling assaulted Keyder and beat him so brutally that Keyder will die.

IN 1897.

The BAZAR, a thoroughly up-to-date periodical for women, will enter upon its Thirtieth Volume in 1897. As a fashion journal it is unsurpassed, and is an indispensable requisite for every well-dressed woman. KATIE LANE, its former editor, writes a weekly letter on current fashions from Paris. SANDOZ, BAUDOUIN, and CHATELAIN draw and engrave the newest and finest Parisian designs every week.

The serials for 1897 will be: The Red Bridge Neighborhood, by Maria Louise; Voltaire and Father Quarrion, by Octave Thanet. Short stories will be constantly presented by brilliant writers, among whom are W. E. WILKINS, HANCOCK, SPENCER, MARIAN HARLAND, RUTH MCNEELY, STUART, VIOLE ROSSIGNOL, and MARGARET SUTHERLAND.

What Women are Doing in various parts of the Union will form a series of special interest.

Other interesting features are: The Out-Door Woman, devoted to healthful sports and pastimes; Music, a weekly critical summary of music in New York; Amateur Theatricals, Embodying and Needlework, Ceramics and Etiquette, Good Housekeeping, What Girls are Doing, "Current Social Events," and Personal gleaned from original sources.

John R. McLean's Great Newspaper.

Without a single exception, there is beyond doubt no greater or more popular newspaper in the United States than the Cincinnati Enquirer; or a more successful publisher than its proprietor, Mr. John R. McLean. The old-time prices for the Daily Enquirer have been maintained, and its circulation largely increased each year; hard times and cheaper journals failing to arrest its onward march and high appreciation of the public for its true worth and merit.

The Weekly Enquirer at beginning of the campaign year was offered at 50 cents a year, and its circulation increased by the addition of over 200,000 new subscribers; the most substantial and coveted testimonial a publisher could desire.

When asked for the secret of such success, Mr. McLean frankly answers: The Enquirer has no opinions to force upon its patrons, it simply prints the facts and tells the truth that the reader may form his own opinions. By maintaining the price of the paper, more news and greater variety can be furnished, and every class of business interests catered to, which a cheaper journal cannot afford.

The very liberal support given the Enquirer by the public at large, makes it incumbent upon the management to serve it faithfully with zeal and enterprise in minor matters as well as those of greater magnitude.
